Seminar on “Transition – key issues and filling transition forms”

Programme:
Friday, 21th July 2017.

Transition to GST is the next important step after migration. This requires understanding of the transition provisions and the key issues therein that needs to be addressed immediately. Further since the GST portal plays a key role in the compliance requirements under the law, understanding of the transition forms that need to be filed to be eligible for the transition credits, job work and approval related stock declarations, etc., becomes very critical. Hence, we are conducting a half day session on “Transition – key issues and filling transition forms” to help you transit smoothly into GST.
